Access Form for Registered Reporting Mechanisms (RRMs)

Based on article 26a^{bis} of the Electricity Supply Ordinance of 14 March 2008 (ESO) the same data as reported under the Regulation (EU) No 1227/2011 on wholesale energy market integrity and transparency (REMIT) must also be transmitted in the same format at the same time to ElCom. This transmission shall be processed via one or more of the Registered Reporting Mechanisms.

A RRM is a legal person that complies with the requirements for the reporting of data under REMIT and that is registered with the Agency for the Cooperation of Energy Regulators (ACER) to provide the service of data reporting.

A RRM cooperating with ElCom for data reporting has to fill in this form. After verification by ElCom the RRM will receive the necessary information to build up an interface with ElCom.

All costs for the implementation of the interface and for the transmission of data according to article 26a^{bis} ESO are at the expense of the RRM. ElCom or Swiss Federal authorities bear no costs related to the above.

The RRM remains responsible for the data until the data is in the foreseen IT-domain controlled by ElCom.

Any liability of ElCom or Swiss Federal authorities in case of damage occurring to the RRM through this process or when using software provided by ElCom is excluded.

All information disclosed by ElCom to the RRM, including technical specifications, future amendments, or other documents, or data relating to the RRM's registration and data submission is confidential. The RRM is responsible for adequate organizational and technical data protection measures. The data may be used solely for the purpose of the RRM's registration and connection to the ElCom IT infrastructure and may not be copied, modified in any way, or shared with, or disclosed to any third party. ElCom has to be immediately notified about any unauthorized modification, use or disclosure of confidential information by the RRM. The RRM is liable for any damage caused.

ElCom has the right to exclude an RRM from the reporting system at any time, in particular if the RRM does not meet the required conditions, if it is necessary for the secure operation of the system, if the RRM violates any provision under this agreement or if the RRM is excluded from reporting by any other authority.

Swiss law alone is applicable. The exclusive place of jurisdiction is Bern, Switzerland.

By sending back this signed Access Form to ElCom at the following e-mail address market.surveillance@elcom.admin.ch the RRM takes note and accepts this form and the terms and conditions outlined herein.
